Jack Talk: Women on the Arizona Frontier
The Tubac Presidio State Historic Park and Museum
1 Burruel Street
Tubac, AZ 85646
02:00 PM - 03:00 PM MST
Tubac Presidio, (520) 398-2252
info@tubacpresidio.org

Jack's back! Join us as we welcome Jack Lasseter, well known local orator and historian. The history of the West is not just the story of men. It is the story of men and women. This is Jack's first talk on the fascinating story of some of the women on the Arizona frontier, and a tough and hardy bunch they were. But they would bring civilization to this land. He focuses on three, an Apache woman, a Spanish woman and a New England woman. They have three different stories but all poignant to the development of Arizona. Others include Chinese, African-American, Jewish, Mormon, and ranch women. Also there are governors, judges, a bridesmaid of Eleanor Roosevelt, the Captain of the "Arizona Navy", the first territorial historian, a famous painter and architect, and the last stagecoach robber.

Your ticket includes admission to the Tubac Presidio State Historic Park and Museum, light refreshments and lecture. Although, this isn't your typical "lecture"- free from Powerpoint, sit back relax and enjoy a story that takes you back in time.

Get ready to turn up the heat on your business game because the 2025 Business Expo & Taste of the Valley is coming to town!

Join us on Saturday, January 17, 2026, at the Desert Diamond Casino Diamond Center in Sahuarita from 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM. We're talking about an event so hot, even the desert is getting jealous!

Why should you be there? Well, besides the chance to impress thousands of potential customers, we've got the Taste of the Valley – because who doesn't love mixing business with a side of deliciousness? Tickets for Taste of the Valley will be $2.00 each to sample the wonderful menu items offered!

So, mark your calendars, dust off those business cards, and come show the Valley what you've got. Don't miss out – your competition might bring the heat, but we know you've got the fire!

Not a member of the Chamber? There are options so check it out!

See you at the Desert Diamond Casino – where business dreams and flavor explosions collide!

Cheers,

Randy Graf

President & CEO

Annual Tubac Festival of the Arts

10:00 AM - 05:00 PM MT

Tubac Festival of the Arts has been bringing color to the desert since 1959, and every February, the whole village transforms into an open-air gallery. More than 250 booths fill Tubac's streets with paintings, sculpture, jewelry, photography, and one-of-a-kind finds, while local shops, galleries, and restaurants add their own flair to the mix.

Expect to spend the day wandering the streets, which are closed to cars, so wear comfy shoes and take your time browsing booths, tasting festival food, and enjoying live music. Shuttle service and parking areas make it easy to get in and out, but once you're here, the pace is relaxed. Think sunshine, art at every turn, and plenty of chances to stop, sip, and soak it all in.

Jack Talk: The Buffalo Soldiers

The Tubac Presidio State Historic Park and Museum

1 Burruel Street

Tubac, AZ 85646

02:00 PM - 03:00 PM MST

Tubac Presidio, (520) 398-2252

info@tubacpresidio.org

Jack's back! Join us as we welcome Jack Lasseter, well known local orator and historian, as he shares the epic story of the Buffalo soldiers out West, Black troopers in the U.S. Army after the Civil War, and their contribution during the Indian Wars.

Although we did not see them in the Western movies of our youth, they composed fully 10% of the entire U.S. Army and 20% of the cavalry in that Western army. Their story is a fascinating story, much of which occurs here in the Southwest, here in Arizona. It is a truly stirring story of American patriots that we should never forget.

Your ticket includes admission to the Tubac Presidio State Historic Park and Museum, light refreshments and lecture. Although, this isn't your typical "lecture"- free from Powerpoint, sit back relax and enjoy a story that takes you back in time.

Jack Talk: The Desert in Springtime

The Tubac Presidio State Historic Park and Museum

1 Burruel Street

Tubac, AZ 85646

02:00 PM - 03:00 PM MST

Tubac Presidio, (520) 398-2252

info@tubacpresidio.org

Jack's back! Join us as we welcome Jack Lasseter, well known local orator and historian, as he highlights what to look for as the desert emerges from its winter sleep. The Sonoran Desert, here in southern Arizona, is a special place, unique in the world, but in the Spring when it comes alive with new growth, flowers, fruit, and that brilliant display of colors, it is even more magical and unforgettable. It is truly a time to be out in the desert. You will hear about flowers, fruit, cactus, local birds and other desert animals; and most importantly you will develop a new appreciation for the desert and the natural world surrounding it.

Your ticket includes admission to the Tubac Presidio State Historic Park and Museum, light refreshments and lecture. Although, this isn't your typical "lecture"- free from Powerpoint, sit back relax and enjoy a story about the special place we call home

This comedy follows an empty nesting Midwestern woman who takes on a lodger to help with expenses. But when the East Coast stranger arrives with a past shrouded in mystery, their unlikely friendship turns into a hilarious journey of reinvention, risk, and unexpected consequences. Reminiscent of "The Odd Couple" and Netflix's "Grace and Frankie", "The Roommate" is a wickedly funny and deeply moving story about second chances and self-discovery. Directed by four-time Oscar-nominated actress and veteran director Marsha Mason, who was the Associate Director of the Broadway production and has proven to be comedy gold for ATC with her two prior productions, "Chapter Two" and "An Act of God".

Arizona Theatre Company at the Temple of Music and Art
330 S. Scott Ave.
Tucson, Ar 85701
Starts at 2:00 pm & 7:30 pm
Marina Nelson, 520.463.7668
press@atc.org

This comedy follows an empty nesting Midwestern woman who takes on a lodger to help with expenses. But when the East Coast stranger arrives with a past shrouded in mystery, their unlikely friendship turns into a hilarious journey of reinvention, risk, and unexpected consequences. Reminiscent of "The Odd Couple" and Netflix's "Grace and Frankie", "The Roommate" is a wickedly funny and deeply moving story about second chances and self-discovery. Directed by four-time Oscar-nominated actress and veteran director Marsha Mason, who was the Associate Director of the Broadway production and has proven to be comedy gold for ATC with her two prior productions, "Chapter Two" and "An Act of God".

Admission: Starting at $33
Box Office Number: 1-833-282-7328
