Aphelion

Tubac Center of The Arts

9 Plaza Rd.

Tubac, AZ 85646

07:00 PM - 09:00 PM MST

Jared Newton, (520) 398-2371

exhibitsmanager@tubacarts.org

Tucson Symphony Orchestra Principle Hornist Nelson Ricardo Yovera Perez, Monte Award Winning Tenor Daniel Rosenberg and acclaimed recitalist Michael Dauphinais will present their recital program aphelion on January 3rd in the naive of St. Philips in the Hills Episcopal Church at 6:00 PM MT and on January 4th at Tubac Center of the Arts at 7:00 PM MT.

The program will feature Benjamin Britten's Opus 31: Serenade for Horn, Tenor and Strings; Franz Schubert's Auf dem Strom, D.943 and other new arrangements for Horn, Tenor and Piano including songs of Leonard Bernstein, Mark Blitzstein, and more.

The Tucson performance is for the benefit of The Primavera Foundation; the local non-profit organization that aims to create pathways out of poverty through housing, workforce development, and home ownership. Primavera's services include shelters, transitional housing, affordable housing, drop-in centers, workforce development, homeownership, financial education, mobile outreach, rapid rehousing, comprehensive community development and community gardens. A representative from the foundation will be present for a brief pre-concert presentation.

The Tubac date is presented by Tubac Center of the Arts, a member supported nonprofit, and benefits their performing arts program. Tubac Center of the Arts is the cornerstone for a vibrant cultural program in the Santa Cruz Valley. Karin Topping, TCA Executive Director commented "We are excited to bring this caliber of Musicians to Tubac."
